

Account Groups

The main benefit of account groups is grouping specific accounts into a special group to access them (by searching or reporting, (the account can be placed in more than one group

.The account groups are accessed from the “Accounting - Cards - Account Groups” menu

To add a new group, press the New button and then write the group name, then choose the accounts that will be affiliated with this group (the selected accounts will appear on the left side of the account groups screen), then click on Save
