

Creative Solutions

The Creative Solutions Corporation is interested in finding practical solutions for companies and institutions at the accounting or administrative level, and technically by providing software tools or .office hardware (devices) that help link activities between each other

Creative Solutions program is the most important software product offered by the company, .characterized by its expansion and accounting accuracy

It is divided into several sections (Modules) that are closely interconnected in the form of plugins and not separate programs. The division of the Modules allows providing the best solution to the facility to choose the needed modules only, and at the same time the interconnection between required .moduls to ensures consistency within sharing of the same resources and the data
